

Master's Program in Sport and Olympic Studies

Course Number	Course Name	Instruc-tional Type	Credits	stand-ard registration year	Term	Meeting Days, Per-iod etc.	Classro-om	Instructor	Course Overview	Remarks
OATQ001	Olympic Movement Studies	1	1.0	1	Fall AB	Mon2		Obayashi Taro, Sawae Yukinori	In this class, we will learn the history and developmet of Olympic (and Paralympic) Movement and discuss the future. Especially, we focus on the difinition of the Olympic Movement, the process of Olympic Movement in Japan, the Olympic Movement beyond Tokyo 2020, etc. The topics of the Paralympics are also treated.	GS1302 Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face (partially online)
OATQ002	Olympic Movement and Sport Law	1	1.0	1	Fall AB	Wed1		Saito Kenji	This course deals with the Olympic Charter and Anti-Doping Rules as laws related to the Olympic Movement, and introduces interpretation method or function of these legal norms. Specifically, students will learn the composition and contents of the Olympic Charter, the definition of the Olympic Charter concerning the Olympic Movement, its legal significance, and the transition of the Olympic Movement in the previous Olympic Charter.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face (partially online) Video contents will be delivered by using the Microsoft Stream.
OATQ003	International Sport Event Management	1	1.0	1	Spr ABC	Intensi-ve		Daigo Ebe	This course provides a framework for understanding the management and marketing strategies used in the sporting event industry. The major focus on Sports Event Management examines two themes, sport events as medium/catalyst and sport events as product. The first theme views sports as one of the vehicles to promote a product, service or organization. The second theme focuses on the application of general event management principles and theories to promote sports and sport related products.	Lecture is conducted in English. Online (partially face-to-face) Hybrid: Asynchronous online teaching, pre-recorded lecture and onsite workshop/presentation.
OATQ004	Anti-Doping	1	1.0	1	Fall B	Intensi-ve		Watanabe Koichi	The development of anti-doping (AD) program in sports all over the world, AD program and Global sport, Sport system, the Code and roles and responsibilities of athletes are introduced. Also the importance of integrity in sport, values-based education, fairness in sport will be discussed.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face (partially online) Detailes will be announced by the instructor
OATQ005	Japanese Culture	1	1.0	1	Fall AB	Intensi-ve		Egami Izumi	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ・ To understand Japanese culture, history, and etiquette. ・ To learn about Japanese customs, traditions, and manners from the perspective of cross-cultural communication. ・ To learn business etiquette in Japan based on an understanding of the principles of protocol (international etiquette). 	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face Learn Japanese culture and manners through PowerPoint explanation and try it out for yourself. Capacity: Approximately 20 students *Preference will be given to students of Master's Program in Sport and Olympic Studies. *When we are oversubscribed, there will be a draw.
OATQ006	Sport and Diversity	1	1.0	1	Spr B	Intensi-ve		Shimizu Satoshi, Sato Takahiro	Through this course, the students will learn about problems that we have been facing regarding sports and diversity and discuss about future inclusive society through 2 different topics. First topic is about sport and gender issues such as women's participation in sports, women's position and leadership in sports organizations, LGBT issues, etc. The second topic is about sport and disabilities. The students will learn about the Paralympic Games and other international competitive sports events as well as leaning about various disabilities and their characteristics through some examples.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face (partially online) GS1302 or 301

OATQ007	Olympic and Paralympic Education	1	1.0	1	SprAB	Wed2		Obayashi Taro, Sawae Yukinori, Benton Caroline F.	In this class, we will learn the theory and practices of the Olympic and Paralympic education. Especially in Japan, the educational activities are promoted even in the Tokyo 1964. In addition, One-School One-Country programme was spreaded on Nagano 1998. Based on the historical background and experiences for Tokyo 2020, we will consider the future of the Olympic and Paralympic education.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face (partially online) GSI302
OATQ008	Taiku (Physical Education)	1	1.0	1	SprAB	Tue4		Matsuo Hirokazu	In this course, students will experience various sports played in Japanese school physical education and modified games of those sports. Through this experience, students will gain an understanding of the theories and practices used in Japanese school physical education. Students will also deepen their understanding of the culture of Japanese school physical education.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face Sekisho Field
OATQ009	Cross-Cultural Communication	1	1.0	1	FallAB	Fri5		Rakwal Randeep	In this course, students will learn the basics of cross-cultural communication in respect to the globalised university, and the future working environment they will face. Irrespective of your backgrounds, past affiliations and disciplines, the need will be to have good communication with people having diverse perspectives and personalities, and which is key for building relationships and success, and future careers. Expert Guest Speakers and practical workshops with expert communicators will be held. 4th Cross Cultural-Communication Batch students (Oct. 2023 enroll) : Register Fall AB	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face. Online (Asynchronous) . Online (Synchronous) GSI302
OATQ010	Research Project Management	1	2.0	1	FallAB	Fri1,2		Rakwal Randeep	In this course, students will learn about management of their research projects, focusing on the planning, outline construction, and details therein in line with the stated aims and objectives of the project. Basics of research to practical steps to manage the research will be provided. The course dwells on the reason to do research and the interests that lead to the research, starting with the HOT TOPIC.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ011	TIAS Internship A	3	4.0	1, 2	FallC, Spr Vac	by request		Kawai Toshinobu, Rakwal Randeep, Yamaguchi Taku	Students will be conducting an internship of 4 weeks or more at a domestic or international sports organization, sports administrative organization, or internationally expanding sports-related company. Students choose either A or B. This course is for students who will conduct an internship during the Fall C to Spring Vacation.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ012	TIAS Internship B	3	4.0	1	SprC, Sum Vac	by request		Kawai Toshinobu, Rakwal Randeep, Yamaguchi Taku	Students will be conducting an internship of 4 weeks or more at a domestic or international sports organization, sports administrative organization, or internationally expanding sports-related company. Students choose either A or B. This course is for students who will conduct an internship during the Spring C to Summer Vacation.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ013	TIAS Research Project	2	4.0	2	SprABC	by request		Fukasawa Koyo, Saito Kenji, Nishiyasu Takeshi, Rakwal Randeep, Watanabe Koichi, Ohishi Junko, Kawai Toshinobu, Sawae Yukinori	Students will conduct their own research project based on one of the research majors as below, and will write a final report. 1) Olympic and Paralympic Education 2) Sport Management 3) Sport Science and Medicine 4) Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ201	Seminar in Olympic and Paralympic Education I	2	2.0	1	FallABC	by request		Fukasawa Koyo, Obayashi Taro, Sawae Yukinori	By the end of the seminar students will be able to articulate their research argument about Olympic and Paralympic Education through review study and practical research with written and orally presented project.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face

OATQ202	Seminar in Olympic and Paralympic Education II	2	2.0	1	SprABC	by request		Fukasawa Koyo, Obayashi Taro, Sawae Yukinori	By the end of the seminar students will be able to articulate their research argument about Olympic and Paralympic Education through review study and practical research with written and orally presented project.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ203	Seminar in Sport Management I	2	2.0	1	FallABC	Wed5		Saito Kenji, Daigo Ebe	This course focuses on the sport management, business and administration. The course can be divided into two parts. The first part is individual activity. Students require to collect, introduce, and summarize scientific papers those are related to their research topic. The other part is a group activity. Students is expected to work in small group. They will discuss and decide their theme, set up research questions, collect data, and have a presentation at the final class.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face Use both face-to-face and online(Synchronous) Classroom is GS1302. In principle, weekday and period is Wed5.
OATQ204	Seminar in Sport Management II	2	2.0	1	SprABC	Wed5		Saito Kenji, Daigo Ebe	In this seminar, participants are required to discuss research topics in the sport management field by using a case study approach. In addition, participants are sometimes expected to conduct fieldwork on sports events and sports organisations in Japan.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ205	Seminar in Sport Science and Medicine I	2	2.0	1	FallABC	by request		Nishiyasu Takeshi, Takagi Hideki, Watanabe Koichi, Rakwal Randeep	Literature review, small group discussion on experimental design and research methods necessary for writing a final report.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ206	Seminar in Sport Science and Medicine II	2	2.0	1	SprABC	by request		Nishiyasu Takeshi, Takagi Hideki, Watanabe Koichi, Rakwal Randeep	Literature review, small group discussion on experimental design and research methods necessary for writing a final report.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ207	Seminar in Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture I	2	2.0	1	FallABC	by request		Kawai Toshinobu, Sengoku Yasuo, Ohishi Junko, Matsuo Hirokazu	Student will choose an academic supervisor from one of the professors listed in the left column. Through this course, students will be instructed by the academic supervisor on identifying issues and knowledge gaps, setting research questions and research design, collecting and processing data, and giving presentations.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face The chosen academic supervisor informs the students about the style of this seminar.
OATQ208	Seminar in Teaching, Coaching and Japanese Culture II	2	2.0	1	SprABC	by request		Kawai Toshinobu, Sengoku Yasuo, Ohishi Junko, Matsuo Hirokazu	Students will be instructed by the academic supervisor as chosen in Seminar I. In Seminar II, students will continue learning to identify issues and knowledge gaps, set research questions and research design, collect and process data, and give presentations.	The chosen academic supervisor informs the students about the style of this seminar. Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ209	Olympism and Legacy	1	1.0	1	FallAB	Thu3		Fukasawa Koyo	In this course, we will learn about the significance of Olympism and Olympic Legacy, consider the ideal way of legacy that fits the situation in the future countries and regions, and reflect Olympism by contemplating future Olympic Legacy. Will aim to develop insight into legacy through them. After confirming the essentials of Olympism, we will take the opportunity of the Olympic Legacy to be mentioned and the details of its introduction. Based on these, we will investigate the actual sports mega event, contemplate actions that reflect the legacy philosophy, and give presentations on them.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face

OATQ210	Sport Organisation and Governance	1	1.0	1	FallBC	Intensive		SUGIYAMA Shoichi	The objectives of this course are: i) to understand the governance structure of International Sport Federations (IFs) and National Sport Federations (NFs) and their business at the practical level as well as the roles and responsibilities of stakeholders involved in sports organizations; and ii) to discuss the system for promoting "Olympic Movement" (including anti-doping and dispute resolution) and the global model of governance in the field of sports, focusing on the interaction among stakeholders proposed by the International Olympic Committee. This course is organized by the expert practitioner.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face
OATQ211	International Sport Marketing	1	1.0	1	FallAC	Intensive		Daigo Ebe	This course will be an 10-classes course that will have a broad overview of sports marketing strategies including sponsorship and consumer behaviour. Ideas such as promotion, public relations, advertising, media coverage and sponsorship will be explored in this course. The student will have presentations to learn each contents of sports marketing. Furthermore, through discussion topics (we will call this 'class activity') the student will focus on reinforcing topics presented in the class as well as current topics in sports.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face (partially online)
OATQ212	Sport Technology and Biomechanics	1	1.0	1					Students will learn the rationale of biomechanics and hydrodynamics behind the development of sports gears or high competitive performance, and discuss the methods and problems of the latest athlete's training. Students will be able to address the technological challenges in modern sports.	Not open after 2024. Lecture is conducted in English. Not open in 2024. face-to-face (partially online)
OATQ213	Sport Medicine	1	1.0	1	SprABC	by appointment		Watanabe Koichi	This course introduces sports medicine in Japan and the world, medical issue in event management. Lectures such as sports injury and trauma updates, sudden death and medical screening by aging, basis for athletic prevention and rehabilitation including oriental medicine, conditioning and gender issue will be discussed. Also, it includes practices of CPR, experience of surgery in an operating room, massage, taping, and another intervention.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face Partially online on demand. Site: GSI 302 and SMIT in Univ. of Tsukuba Hospital
OATQ214	Exercise Physiology and Human Performance	1	1.0	1					Introduction of exercise physiology and latest findings related to human performance.	Not open after 2024. Lecture is conducted in English. Not open in 2024. face-to-face
OATQ215	Elite Sport Coaching	1	1.0	2	FallAB	Intensive		Sengoku Yasuo	In this course, we will learn and practice the theory and methodology about coaching and training for elite athlete.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face GSI302
OATQ216	Budo	1	1.0	1	SprB	Intensive		Ohishi Junko	In this course, students will learn and have some experience of budo. They will have a short one day trip to Kashima-Jingu Shrine to observe a classical style of budo (Japanese martial arts). Students basically need to pay the traffic cost for the both of the ways between Tsukuba and Kashima.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face Second week in June Tentatively 同名科目01EH083は開講。
OATQ218	Sport Technology, Biomechanics, and Exercise Physiology	1	1.0	1	SprAB	Thu5	GSI302	Kudo Shigetada, Koike Sekiya, Matsuda Akihiro, Ono Seiji, Nishiyasu Takeshi, Rakwal Randeep, Matsui Takashi, Fujii Naoto, Okamoto Masahiro	Students will learn the rationale of biomechanics, hydrodynamics, and physiology behind the development of sports gears and high competitive performance, and discuss the methods and problems of the latest athlete's training. Students will be able to address the technological and physiological challenges in modern sports.	Lecture is conducted in English. face-to-face. face-to-face (partially online)